

Level of Understanding - Cognitive Function

Resident Name: Susan MCV_02

Report created on: 09/12/2023 1:33 PM by Sandy Matthews [Nurse Consultant]

Information from all sources

Is this assessment completed to the extent it needs to be at this stage? Yes

CALL BELL USAGE

Can the Resident use a call-bell? Yes

From the Falls and Other risks / Safety Assessment - Can the resident press a call bell? Yes

Any Call Bell Staff Interventions regardless of ability
Staff are to ensure the call bell is within reach for Sue to use.
Sue forgets to use her call bell.
Staff are to check on her regularly and encourage Sue to use the call bell and wait for assistance staff to answer promptly.
Sue does sometimes press the emergency buzzer if she does not want to wait for staff.

LEVEL OF UNDERSTANDING

Resident has a diagnosis of dementia Yes

Behaviour Assessment required No

Ability to remember recent events Sue has difficulty remembering recent events.

Ability to remember past events Sue occasionally forgets past events.STML

COPING STRATEGIES

How does the resident cope with difficulties? Sue enjoys talking with her Nephew Gordon.

PAST SCHOOLING / LEARNING HISTORY

Level of schooling Sue left school at the age of 15 years

OCCUPATIONS OVER LIFETIME

Past occupations Secretary.

FURTHER COGNITIVE ASSESSMENT REQUIRED

PAS or other assessment required Yes

PSYCHOGERIATRIC ASSESSMENT SCALES

PAS or other cognitive assessment score (note which assessment used) 13.26 - Moderate Cognitive impairment associated with diagnosis of dementia